PRESIDENT'S PONDERINGS

By Mike Piper
PPCC President

Hi all!

During the last PPCC monthly meeting, which was just yesterday, there is some good news and minor humor. Christine Kimberly was out with the Greens again in their red '68 Monza, and while she can't drive, she is getting around better and seemed to be in good cheer. Several others in the room are also wrangling with ailments but we are getting along. I should point out for fun that for the first time ever I was actually the first one there doing minor maintenance on my red car. Jerry Peevyhouse and a couple of others asked if the Corvairs came in any color aside from red because he took a photo of three red cars together. We've lost our usual waitress at Valley Hi, but there is a new lady who said we're easier to manage than the nighttime bar crowd who have had a few (not exactly her words but the sentiment – some humor intended).

It is becoming apparent there are many activities ahead this summer. Perhaps I wasn't paying attention last year but there are already a pretty good collection of flyers that we're receiving. It seems like more than I recall recently. This is also pointing out that Christine has asked for someone to take over the activities director role so she can concentrate on other things. She has a considerable list of things to do beyond the flyers and emails we are receiving so she can give the next activities person a very good start. I believe Kathy Green sent an email via the listserv on this topic. Having a new activity coordinator soon will be very helpful. For the moment, several individuals and helping to track events where they have participated in the past or have been contacted. I had a partial list with incomplete information on my agenda. The incomplete information was frustrating to some but I pointed out I am NOT the activities person and DON'T want to be. For the moment send info and flyers to Kristal and she will include them in the latest Dripline. Items of note are Cripple Creek has decided not to invite us back because our poor showing last year was not sufficient to justify their sponsorship effort. John Green stated his concern that if enough don't show up for the Concourse d'Elegance at the Arapahoe Community College we may face a similar fate so please sign up.

This year's membership effort is over. Randy reported we lost two members and gained one. He will update the official roster very soon. If you did not pay dues but want to remain a member, please send in your dues.

The work on the tri-state continues. The report today was that some numbers look a little off like meals and tee shirts versus room reservations. The Tri-State team noted some deadlines are coming up. Look elsewhere in the Dripline for more info. There was also discussion about how to manage the raffle baskets and door prizes for those with limited room in our cars to transport these items to Salida. The "committee" is also developing a list of volunteers needed and a schedule so they can track what we have and still need.

I neglected yesterday to ask for an update on our "charity" status with the IRS and the state. We'll get an update. I don't think this is urgent, but Randy has been working on this issue.

Sneaking quietly into some personal stuff, I had another encounter with the wound specialist so I'm back to taking more time with the bandaging effort and as they add more foam to my orthotic to protect my toe I'm getting taller. I have managed to get some hours in on my project car so now the drive train is sitting on furniture dollies on the floor and the rest of the rear suspension is moving through clean up and on to powder coating. Steve Goodman is assisting with removing the suspension bushings for me. His press is far more dignified and less damaging than my ballpeen hammer and a block of wood.

On my way home from the meeting I had a couple of problems with the red car. I told Kathy Green it was running well and she said not to jinx it. She was right. These cars may run great until they don't. I did not end up on the side of the road calling AAA but I've had persistent problems with clunking and popping in the front suspension. It sounds like parts should be lying on the ground. While I have not checked yet this time, in the past I've never found anything loose or missing. In the past I've blamed it on a poor fitting new gas tank. There was damage to the front bulkhead near the front right corner of the tunnel when I hit the debris on the way to Wichita. I need to look harder there. Broken welds could cause things to flex and pop like the old kid's frog clicker. We'll see. A drive to Salida on windy roads with this going on is not something to look forward to. My other problem is a noisy pilot bushing. That is time consuming to replace.

The issue of the "Bug Out" has come up. Glen Dowling has offered his barn for the event. I want to echo Kathy's caveat in her email that any car work should be minor at this event, or if you get advice note that your mileage may vary. There are bound to be at least as many opinions as people you talk to. When we go to Eric's in Sedalia the major point is to get together and to run the cars for a distance to see if there are issues, possibly to be fixed later, before driving to the Tri-State.

I never made it to a Bug Out at Dave & Mary Ellen Feasel's so I don't know their intent. A Bug Out or Tune up is not a good time to undertake repairs that may take more time to deal with than what is available. There is also any potential liability if someone gets hurt or if someone works on a car for another and there is a later failure. If you have a significant problem, try to get it solved before leaving for the Tri-State and be sure your AAA membership is paid up.

I personally don't want to be under a hotel breezeway installing a borrowed distributor in the snow like I was last year (mostly with the work of Charlie Beets and Phil DeGroot). We did adapt and overcome temporarily but work I did on my own car lead to another more dangerous breakdown on the way home. That work was on me. The Corvair bunch is helpful and resourceful but try to get problems you know about solved ahead of time.

As always, I hope all of you not at the meeting are doing well and are healthy. I know about the attendees... Take it easy, stay cheerful, stay warm and drive carefully.

-Mike

VP VOLTAGE—Is there a Spring in your step?

Submitted by
Jerry Peevyhouse

Yes, it’s now officially Spring, and now that the time change has kicked in, we all can just continue to count up all the extra minutes of lightness accumulating during the days. Warmth is coming, patience my friends.

Also coming is April, the first full month of Spring. April comes from the Latin verb “Aperire” which means “to open”. Like the flowers and trees, it’s a time to start fresh and shed those cold/cool weather layers. My only problem living here at the top of Monument Hill is that we still get lots of freezing nights all the way into late May. The month of April also has its set of holidays and observances, aside from the usual suspects of April Fool’s Day and Tax Day. Every day of the month has its own “National day of something”, so just for fun here are a few of them for you curious people.

April 3 – National Chocolate Mousse Day

April 8 – National Empanada Day, and Day of Silence

April 15 – My wife’s birthday (yah, I had to throw that in, born on Tax Day)

April 16 – Husband Appreciation Day (my personal favorite....)

April 21 – National Bulldogs are Beautiful Day

OK, I gotta stop, these are getting really pretty ridiculous. I bet if we google it, we might even find a National Shoe Shine Day.

[I googled it, and the closest I could find was National Shoe the World Day— March 15. Kristal]

Crazy. Let’s lobby for a National Corvair Day, hey, can’t hurt.

To follow-up on a previous article from Oct. of last year regarding my issue with our Subaru's catalytic converter that failed, yup, we did bite the bullet and had it replaced. We did some shopping around and found a local place that replaced it with the stupid CARB certified converter for only $3,500 out the door. We really did need to get it replaced because we were driving to California at the end of Feb. and needed it done. Check Engine light was also bugging me. So, the good news is the car is running great now, just with a lot more miles on it after the trip to CA. and our pocket-book lighter. So, it seems we'll be driving it for a while to recoup that expense. Hey, it's paid for, key criteria for those of us on fixed income.

Since returning, I was able to get the Monza out to get some needed miles on it to keep everything lubed up, and it's running pretty good. I do have some things to do on it to get it ready for the upcoming Tri-State event in May, but I might put some of that off and take it over to Glen Dowling's place for our Tri-State Bug-out on May 6th. Please plan on attending, even if it's just for the food and fellowship.

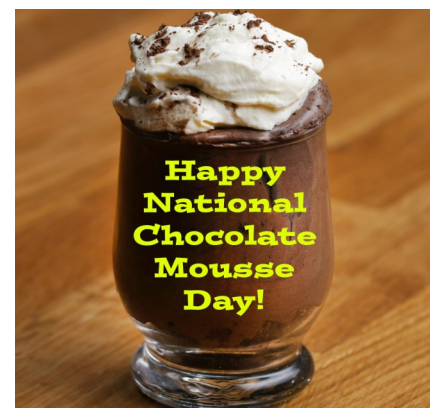

Kathy has sent out the information in an email, so check it out. Since it is Colorado, let's just hope the snow's gone by then. Bets anyone?

Along those lines, let's not forget to register for that upcoming Tri-State in May and get your hotel reservations and event registrations made now. The Tri-State Committee members have been hard at work preparing for this event, and can certainly use any and all help. As I said in my email blast, if you have any issues with the hotel registration, please reach out to me as I am dealing with them directly and can get things resolved. Remember, last day to make reservations to get the event rate is April 19th, which is also Wear Pajamas to Work Day.

Hope you have a great month and get that Spring back into your step. Here's to all the life events ahead.

Enjoy the drive,

Jerry

38th Corvair Tri-State Meet

Submitted By

Kathy Green

Can you believe that Tri-State is nearly upon us – May 19-21, eeeeegad! Plans are well under way and we are anticipating a GREAT event.

Please don't forget to register for the event and get your hotel reservations in ASAP. You can register online or print out a registration form and send it with your check to the address on the form.

Important deadlines:

April 19: Last Day for Hotel Reservations

WE NEED YOU! Volunteers are still needed to help with various activities at the event. Volunteers are needed for:

shifts in the hospitality room,

assisting with raffle ticket sales,

helping during the car show passing out ballots and chatting up the Corvairs

In the show,

and most especially for setup and tear down at the banquet.

If you are interested in volunteering for any of these areas, please let Randy Karl know and we'll plug you into our volunteer list. We know that several members are planning to attend and have let us know they will volunteer, but if you want to secure a slot doing something you like, you'll want to let Randy know!

We are also still hoping for more donations for the raffle. Some basket/bucket/box ideas are:

- Car Theme (Hot Wheels, Lightning McQueen etc.)
- Car cleaning supplies
- Breakfast/Coffee/Tea
- Everything Pets (or dog or cat...)
- Kid Friendly Items

If you would like to donate any raffle items, please let Diane Tweedy-Lawler know what you plan to provide.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Submitted By
Kristal Harrison

PPCC is looking for a volunteer to fill the Events coordinator for the club. Chris has done a wonderful job, but is putting all her energy into Tri-State.

The primary duty of this role is finding events that club members may wish to attend and either creating/setting up the event, or promoting the event (if provided by a different organization).

Activities can be 'formal' such as a visit to a museum or exhibit, or just a nice drive together for a meal or snack (ice cream is always popular!).

Lastly, if you would like to suggest a place for our annual Christmas party, feel free to let a board member know or bring it up at the next club meeting.

Our club is special because of our members—please consider how you can help!

TRI-STATE BUG OUT (you know, get the bugs out...)Submitted By Kathy Green

The Tri-State Bug Out is back!!!

Thanks to member Glen Dowling who has graciously offered the use of his very nice barn for this event, we'll plan to meet May 6, from 11:00 – 3:00. This event is to help any and all members who could use some expert assistance get their cars ready to travel to Salida.

Glen's address is 8110 Shoup Road, Colorado Springs.

His house is the blue house on the hill. The gate will be open, and the barn is behind the house. If you need for detailed directions, please contact Glen directly.

Please note that this event is NOT for major repairs (for instance, we probably can't help replace an axel or put in a new suspension). However, if you just need some help putting in new headlight bulbs, replacing your fan belt, checking your fluids or verifying tire pressures – you know, the small things that can make a trip in an old car turn awful if you don't address them, this is the event for you!! Or, if you just want to come and hang out and talk cars, it's for you too!! You are welcome to complete an oil change, but you will need to bring your own oil and plan to take your old oil back out with you.

Glen has tools he is willing to let members use, but please feel free to bring your own as well. There won't be a supply of parts available, so bring what you need!

If you are planning to attend, please let Glen know by April 29 so that he and KeithAnn Peevyhouse are able to plan how much food they will need (did I forget to mention there will be food?).

Join us for the Bug Out and make sure you thank Glen for his willingness to offer his barn for our use.

DRIP QUIPS

Thanks to Christine for sending this ...

If you have a fun, amusing, touching or interesting story or picture you think can bring a smile, an 'aaaaah' or an 'eeek', please send your submission to Kristal\_rex1@yahoo.ca attention: Drip Quips.
