PRESIDENT'S PONDERINGS60 years and countingSubmitted by Jerry Peevyhouse
PPCC President

My Corvair had a milestone birthday this year. Turned 60. Whoo Hoo. Blowing up the balloons and eating cake as I'm writing this 😊.

Now to be fair, a bunch of you club members are celebrating the same birthday with your 1965 Corvairs. I know Mike and my cars are twins, just not identical. 😊 Be it a Convertible, Sedan, or Coupe, this is one of those milestone years to show off how good a 60-year-old car can look and drive.

So, 60 years ago what was I doing with my life? Once again, a milestone event, high school graduation at Colfax High School in California. Seems like just yesterday in some ways, but yet so much has happened in the last 60 years it sometimes feels like an eternity. Not having a car in high school, I'm a bit envious of those people (mostly guys) I talk to at the car shows who are always saying how fun it was to skip classes and just drive around in their cars, many times it was a Corvair. I don't remember anyone at my school with a Corvair, but it's possible. Just remember the Ford Falcon I got to drive around in Driver's Ed. Remember Driver's Ed? That was back when they actually had the classes and driving lessons in school, didn't even have to pay for them. How old school is that?

Anyway, just happy to have my 65 now and looking forward to it's next milestone birthday. Not to forget those of you that have the Early models who have already celebrated your 60-year milestone birthdays over the past 4 years.

Now, another bite of cake.

As far as events and shows coming up this year, looks like the St. Patrick's Day parade in Colorado Springs on Saturday March 15th is the first thing out of the chute. Hopefully the weather will cooperate and we have sunny skies. Maybe even top-down weather? This is our club's rotation year, so we want to make sure we are well represented. John Green is heading up our activities and events this year and needs to hear from you if you're coming to the St. Patrick's Day parade. We need a strong showing to this always fun event.

Another one of the major events planned this year is our Tri-State meet that Rocky Mountain Corsa is hosting May 30-31 in Trinidad. We have sent out information regarding the event, but you can check out all the details and register at their website:

<https://www.rockymountaincorsa.org/upcomingevents/rmc-tri-state>

We are looking forward to a fun time getting together with friends from RMC, CNM and Bonneville clubs.

Also, just the week before the Tri-State is the CORSA National Convention, to be held May 20-23 in San Luis Obispo, CA. This is one of those rare years of a West Coast convention, so a great opportunity to travel a shorter distance to attend. San Luis Obispo (SLO) is a beautiful location in Central California.

Regarding our club meetings, seems like Jan and Feb were a bit of a challenge weather-wise. We did have our Feb. meeting in person, with a fair representation of hearty souls braving the COLD weather. We're hoping March weather will be turning the corner and we'll have warmer weather. Just remember we enter the Daylight Savings Time zone on Sunday March 9th, and the spring equinox on March 20th. Can't wait for longer days of sunlight 😊. Looking forward to driving in more sun, less snow....

Finally, I wanted to leave you with a calming thought.

The Mozart Effect: Ever heard of it? Researchers found you get a brain boost for up to 15 minutes after listening to Mozart's Sonata for two pianos for 10 minutes. Mozart was an incredible musician. It's a shame he died baroque. (groan)

Enjoy the journey,

Jerry

Good day to you all!

Jerry suggested that I give a quick introduction for my first article in the Dripline. Even though I have met several of you through club meetings and a few car shows, I thought this was a great idea. Yes, you read that correctly. I said Jerry had a great idea...

I was born and grew up in Charlotte, NC. After high school, I attended college at UNC-Wilmington, where I received my Bachelors of Music Education degree. I am currently in my 23rd year of teaching band, 20 of which have been in Widefield School District 3 in Colorado Springs. My wife, Christa, is an elementary music teacher, and we have two kids. My daughter, Alexis, who will be getting married this summer, and my son, Brennan, who will be graduating from Widefield High School in May.

Now, on to the good stuff. I currently own my great uncle's 1966 Corvair Monza. I took ownership of the Corvair a little over three years ago. As a small boy I would often visit my Uncle Leon and Aunt Bet who lived just down the road from my house. My Uncle Leon was a fantastic mechanic and carpenter. During my visits I would always make my way to the garage where he would be tinkering around on his latest project. To keep me occupied and out of the way, Uncle Leon would open a burlap bag of black walnuts he had collected from the property and crack a few open for me. As I sat there eating walnuts off of the oil-stained floor and listening to my uncle’s air compressor run, I was enthralled at this old, blue car with one flat tire sitting in front of me.

This was not my Uncle’s first Corvair. He originally had a 1961, 500 Club Coupe in Arbor Green. In fact, it is still in a lean-to behind the same garage from where we pulled the 66. Of course, the humidity of the Southern states doesn’t treat vehicles very well when left to the elements for 63 years. I am hoping that the current owner will be able to get it into the hands of one of the local Corvair clubs in the Charlotte area.

As I write these articles periodically, I plan to talk about the process of restoring my car. I was the consummate flashlight holder for my dad as a kid. I never got to do as much hands-on work as I now wish I had. I have found that I am great at taking things apart. The reassembly is where I have leaned on professionals, friends that have had older vehicles and, of course, our club members.

Keep it on the road, and may your 10mm always be where you left it.

The club's first activity of the year is the St. Patrick's Day parade in Colorado Springs. It is on March 15th and the actual parade starts at noon. We have to line up by 11. The last time we participated was in 2022 and had seven Corvairs. It would be great to have a good showing again. The club paid for the registration, so individuals do not have to pay. The parade will go on no matter what the weather is doing. You will need to decorate your car with St. Patrick's bling!

Please let John know ASAP if you are planning to join us in the parade. So far, he knows of two cars, the Peevyhouse's and the Green's.
